Digest of Plan

Deity created the universe, guiding its development as necessary. Humans are their children. ...

<sup>1</sup> God the Father and God the Mother have many children. <sup>2</sup> For a long time, they all lived together in heaven. <sup>3</sup> Father and Mother have vast wisdom, and immortal, perfect bodies. <sup>4</sup> Their children were immortal spirits without physical bodies and with little knowledge.

<sup>10</sup> When mortal bodies were ready, Father and Mother began to send their children into mortality through birth. <sup>11</sup> They sent each child to a body, on a planet, at a time, and in a location optimal for that child's growth.

help them remember and act, the Parents have invited some of their children to be messengers. <sup>18</sup> Many messengers declined the invitation. <sup>19</sup> Some delivered the message faithfully at first but allowed distractions of the world to lead them astray and confuse their message. <sup>20</sup> They often did not know that they were distracted. People called some of these messengers prophets.

<sup>21</sup> Faithful messengers were found regardless of time, place, culture, status or religion into which they had been born. <sup>22</sup> The Parents knew that different messengers would help different children to progress, so they invited messengers of all kinds. <sup>23</sup> The essence of these messages has been stable, while the details vary to accommodate mortal bias.

until you are tranquil. <sup>7</sup> Recite, “God in heaven, I thank you for life, air to breathe, quiet places, and the ability to choose; <sup>8</sup> for challenges, work, emotion, and the gift of reason.” <sup>9</sup> In your own words, express heartfelt gratitude to God.

<sup>10</sup> Confession: Bow, eyes closed, hands on knees, face downward. <sup>11</sup> Recite, “God in heaven, I strive to keep the Priorities, and to learn from my failures when I don’t. <sup>12</sup> I want to be more like you. <sup>13</sup> I fall short in these ways.” <sup>14</sup> In your own words, confess to God your failures, weaknesses, and ways you need to improve.

<sup>15</sup> Petition: Squat, arms outstretched, hands cupped to form a bowl, your face forward. <sup>16</sup> Recite, “God in heaven, you have given me a beautiful world to live in, messengers to teach me, and guidance when I ask. <sup>17</sup> Hear my prayer.” <sup>18</sup> In your own words, request God’s guidance in achieving your righteous desires.
