Digest of Plan

Deity created the universe, guiding its development as necessary. Humans are their children. ...

 $^1\,\rm God$  the Father and God the Mother have many children.  $^2\,\rm For}$  a long time, they all lived together in heaven.  $^3\,\rm Father$  and Mother have vast wisdom, and immortal, perfect bodies.  $^4\,\rm Their$  children were immortal spirits without physical bodies and with little knowledge.

<sup>10</sup> When mortal bodies were ready, Father and Mother began to send their children into mortality through birth. <sup>11</sup> They sent each child to a body, on a planet, at a time, and in a location optimal for that child's growth.

<sup>12</sup> Living in a mortal body clouds each child's memory of their former life in heaven. <sup>13</sup> Some children can only feel the Parents' influence very quietly. <sup>14</sup> Others can feel it more plainly. <sup>15</sup> All can learn to feel it better.

<sup>21</sup> Faithful messengers were found regardless of time, place, culture, status or religion into which they had been born. <sup>22</sup> The Parents knew that different messengers would help different children to progress, so they invited messengers of all kinds. <sup>23</sup> The essence of these messages has been stable, while the details vary to accommodate mortal bias.

<sup>24</sup> The Parents remain involved in and mindful of their children's lives. <sup>25</sup> Their involvement consists mainly in delivering information to their children when they need it and request it. <sup>26</sup> Physical intervention is rare. <sup>27</sup> Compulsion is absent.

Digest of Priorities

- $^1$  You have a conscience to govern your free will.  $^2$  These priorities are a guide to keep conscience within proper bounds.  $^3$  They are listed from most important to least important.  $^4$  Try to observe all these commandments.  $^5$  If two must conflict, prefer the more important one.
  - $^6$  Love God.  $^7$  Love people.
- <sup>8</sup> Only use compulsion to stop an immediate threat to life, property or free will.
  - <sup>9</sup> Be humble. <sup>10</sup> Forgive wrongs, real and perceived.
- <sup>11</sup> Only have sexual relations with your spouses. <sup>12</sup> Maintain stable, long-term relationships with your spouses.
- $^{12}\,\mathrm{Offer}$  formal prayer daily.  $^{13}\,\mathrm{Study}$  the digests or canons daily.
- <sup>14</sup> Be honest. <sup>15</sup> Obey the laws of the land. <sup>16</sup> Maintain political neutrality. <sup>17</sup> Respect property, yours and others.
  - <sup>18</sup> Tend to your own affairs.
- $^{19}\,\mathrm{Abstain}$  from consuming alcohol and to bacco.  $^{20}\,\mathrm{Abstain}$  from addictive behaviors.
- $^{21}\,\mathrm{Ten}$  per cent of your annual expenditures must be donations.  $^{22}\,\mathrm{Serve}$  a nonymously.
- $^{23}$  Don't make unwise promises.  $^{24}$  Keep your word.  $^{25}$  Avoid contention.  $^{26}$  Speak kindly and quietly.  $^{27}$  Seek moderation in all things.

- $^{28}\,\mathrm{Take}$  care of your self.  $^{29}\,\mathrm{Take}$  care of your children.  $^{30}\,\mathrm{Respect}$  your parents.  $^{31}\,\mathrm{Relationships}$  with your spouses, children, and parents should be your strongest emotional connections.
- $^{31}$  Acquire useful knowledge.  $^{32}$  Engage skillfully in an occupation, trade or craft.  $^{33}$  Receive no remuneration for your service in the Church.  $^{34}$  Make an honest profit.

  - <sup>39</sup> Improve your surroundings.
  - $^{40}$  Skip two meals each month.
- $^{41}\,\mathrm{Make}$  a will to peacefully dispose of your assets upon your death.
  - $^{42}$  Do worthwhile things that are hard for you.  $^{43}$  Be patient.
  - <sup>44</sup> In your public appearance, avoid drawing sexual attention.
- $^{45}\,\rm Maintain$  your body in strength, speed, flexibility, and balance.  $^{46}\,\rm Exert$  yourself physically, six days out of every seven.
  - <sup>47</sup> Make amends.
- $^{48}$  Spend some time each day quiet and alone.  $^{49}$  Spend two consecutive days every three months alone in prayer and meditation and abstaining from worldly affairs.
  - <sup>50</sup> Be grateful. <sup>51</sup> Smile.
  - $^{52}$  Carry the challenge coin.  $^{53}$  Wear the signal of faith.
- <sup>54</sup> Choose some things that you will have at the expense of some things that you won't. <sup>55</sup> Give no importance to that which has none. <sup>56</sup> If it can change, it should change occasionally. <sup>57</sup> Give away what you wish to receive.
  - <sup>58</sup> Follow your conscience.

Digest of Virtues

 $^{18}\,\mathrm{Totality}$  and detail.  $^{19}\,\mathrm{Transparency}$  and privacy.  $^{20}\,\mathrm{Work}$  and repose.

Digest of Prayer

<sup>1</sup> Offer formal prayer one, two, or three times per day. <sup>2</sup> Perform at least one formal prayer outside each day. <sup>3</sup> When praying outside, turn your back to the approximate location of the sun.

 $^{5}\,\mathrm{If}$  unable to perform a posture, use the closest approximation you are able to perform.

<sup>6</sup> Gratitude: Stand with your eyes closed and your face turned toward the sky until you are tranquil. <sup>7</sup> Recite, "God in heaven, I thank you for life, air to breathe, quiet places, and the ability to choose; <sup>8</sup> for challenges, work, emotion, and the gift of reason." <sup>9</sup> In your own words, express heartfelt gratitude to God.

<sup>10</sup> Confession: Bow, eyes closed, hands on knees, face downward. <sup>11</sup> Recite, "God in heaven, I strive to keep the Priorities," and to learn from my failures when I don't. <sup>12</sup> I want to be more like you. <sup>13</sup> I fall short in these ways." <sup>14</sup> In your own words, confess to God your failures, weaknesses, and ways you need to improve.

<sup>15</sup> Petition: Squat, arms outstretched, hands cupped to form a bowl, your face forward. <sup>16</sup> Recite, "God in heaven, you have given me a beautiful world to live in, messengers to teach me, and guidance when I ask. <sup>17</sup> Hear my prayer." <sup>18</sup> In your own words, request God's guidance in achieving your righteous desires.

 $^{23}$  Action: Bow, eyes closed, hands on knees, face downward.  $^{24}$  Recite, "God in heaven, the greatest gift brings no profit when left unused.  $^{25}\,\rm I$  thank you for giving me guidance.  $^{26}\,\rm I$  plan to act."  $^{27}\,\rm In$  your own words, tell God how you will act on the guidance you have received.

Parables

 $^{1:1}\,\mathrm{An}$  optometrist visited a city where everyone was myopic.  $^2\,\mathrm{Patients}$  came to him to have their vision corrected.  $^3\,\mathrm{Through}$  careful measurement and practiced knowledge, he crafted glasses for each patient;  $^4\,\mathrm{a}$  different prescription according to each patient's needs.

<sup>1:5</sup> Patients discovered that the optometrist had given some of them identical prescriptions. <sup>6</sup> They could swap glasses with each other and still see clearly. <sup>7</sup> However, swapping glasses with some people made the world blurry and distorted. <sup>8</sup> Patients with the same prescription congregated together saying among themselves, <sup>9</sup> "The optometrist gave us the true prescription. Other prescriptions are confusing and prevent one from seeing clearly. If others would use our prescription, they could see clearly too."

- $^{2:1}\,\mathrm{A}$  very young child asks his mother how a baby is made.  $^2\,\mathrm{Knowing}$  the child's rudimentary understanding, she responds,  $^3$  "The father places a seed in his wife's belly. The wife nourishes that seed and it grows into a baby."
  - <sup>2:4</sup> So it is when Gods teach their children.
- <sup>3:1</sup> A wealthy king had two vaults filled with treasure. <sup>2</sup> Each vault was protected by a combination lock. <sup>3</sup> Two poor men sought the treasure. <sup>4</sup> The first man turned the dials of the lock. <sup>5</sup> He listened carefully as the wheels turned inside. <sup>6</sup> He noticed patterns of sound and vibration within the dial. <sup>7</sup> He noticed relations between the dials. <sup>8</sup> After many days of persistence and study, he discovered the combination.
- <sup>3:9</sup> The second man offered to be the king's servant. <sup>10</sup> He listened carefully to the king's wishes. <sup>11</sup> He executed the king's wishes faithfully. <sup>12</sup> He asked the king for the vault's treasure. <sup>13</sup> After many days of persistence and service, the king gave him the combination.
  - $^{3:14}$  Both men received treasure.  $^{15}$  So it is with knowledge.
- <sup>4:1</sup> There were two lakes. <sup>2</sup> The first lake said to himself, "I will retain every drop of water that flows into me so that I can be great." <sup>3</sup> His waters became salty and putrid. <sup>4</sup> His fish died and the plants along his shore wilted. <sup>5</sup> Animals and travelers avoided him.
- <sup>4:6</sup> The second lake said to himself, "I want to prosper all life on the mountain below me I will retain a modest pool for myself then allow each drop to pass down the river to those who might use it." <sup>7</sup> His waters became clean and sweet. <sup>8</sup> His fish grew large and the plants along his edge prospered. <sup>9</sup> Animals and travelers came from afar to enjoy his splendor.
  - <sup>4:10</sup> So it is with all assets
- $^{5:1}$  Rain, freshly fallen from a cloud, is clean and good to drink.  $^2$  As it flows down mountains and across plains, it becomes soiled and bitter.  $^3$  The sun must extract pure water again from the sea, leaving impurities behind, to produce fresh rain once more.  $^{5:4}$  So it is with messages from heaven.

- $^{6:1}\,\mathrm{A}$  horse, a dolphin, and an eagle eat different food,  $^2\,\mathrm{yet}$  each grows to full stature and majesty.
  - $^{6:3}\,\mathrm{So}$  it is with the spiritual nourishment of each person.
- $^{7:1}$  Two students are taking a multiple choice test.  $^2$  The first student is given a math test. The second is given a history test.  $^3$  The first student provides the answers A, C, B, C, and D.  $^4$  The second student provides the answers A, C, B, C, and D.  $^5$  The first student scores 100
  - <sup>7:6</sup> So it is with the test of mortality.
- <sup>8:1</sup> A small child asks his mother, "Please get me a cup from the high shelf." <sup>2</sup> The mother reaches the cup for him. <sup>3</sup> A grown man asks his mother, "Please get me a cup from the high shelf." <sup>4</sup> She responds, "You can reach it yourself."
  - 8:5 So it is with Gods and their children.
- $^{9:1}\,\mathrm{A}$  man mixed three measures of flour, one egg, a little sugar, and a little salt into 2000 measures of water  $^2\,\mathrm{then}$  served this to his guests as bread.
  - $^{9:3}$  So it is with many religions.
- $^{10:1}\,\mathrm{A}$  man brought eggs home from the market.  $^2$  Upon arriving, he announced "I brought one dozen eggs."  $^3$  His wife said, "No you didn't. You brought twelve individual eggs."  $^4\,\mathrm{A}$  son said, "You're both wrong. There are clearly three rows of eggs."  $^5\,\mathrm{A}$  daughter disagreed, "Not at all. There are actually four columns of eggs."
  - <sup>10:6</sup> So it is with the nature of deity.
- $^{11:1}$  A man chose to climb a mountain.  $^2$  He fixed his gaze permanently on the summit, and began hiking.  $^3$  He tripped over unseen rocks at his feet,  $^4$  and was unable to attain the summit.

 $^{11:5}\,\mathrm{Another}$  man chose to climb the same mountain.  $^6\,\mathrm{He}$  gazed permanently at his feet, to avoid the errors of the first man, and began hiking.  $^7\,\mathrm{Without}$  tripping once, he wandered off into a valley,  $^8\,\mathrm{and}$  was unable to attain the summit.

 $^{11:9}$  So it is with totality and detail.
